Use Case Diagram

Detailed Use Case

Actors:
- Admin
- Trainer
- Student

Use Cases:
- Browse Modules – Students can browse through the available modules before deciding to enrol in it.
- Enrol in Modules – Students can enrol in a module to enhance their knowledge and skills.
- Track Progress – Students can track their progress on a module by seeing the percentage of the module they have done.
- Manage Users – Admin can update, create and delete users
- Manage Training Modules – Admin can update training modules by updating the title and or description.
- Create Training Modules – Trainer can create new training modules.

- Assign Students to Modules – Trainer can assign students to certain modules.

Relations:
- The Admin can manage users by creating, updating and deleting. Admin can manage training modules by updating or deleting.
- The trainer can create new training modules for students to enrol in and assign students to modules.
- The student can browse different modules, enrol in modules and track their progress on their modules to see how much percentage they have.